

Hey, white guy, look at what the liberals have done to you.

They have insulted, ridiculed, and degraded you.

They have taken away your jobs, your money, and your women.

They have taken away your pride and your self-respect.

They have taken away your past, present, and future.

They have taken away your country and your right to exist.

And you just stand there with a stupid look on your face?

Goddamn, white boy! What's it take to piss you off?
